

Contents

	Author	v
	Acknowledgements	vii
	Foreword	xiii
	Author's note	xvii
1.	Introduction - Medicine and the law	1
2.	A lawyer's mind	3
	2.1 Use of words	4
	2.2 Logic	5
	2.3 Reasoning process	7
	2.4 Oral and documentary evidence	7
	2.5 Consistency and inconsistency	8
	2.6 An example	9
3.	Evidence	13
	3.1 Factual evidence	14
	(i) Direct evidence	14
	(ii) Hearsay	14
	(iii) Oral evidence	15
	(iv) Witness statements	15
	(v) Documentary evidence	16
	3.2 Expert evidence	17
	3.3 Bias	17
4.	Proof	19
	4.1 The burden of proof	19
	4.2 The standard of proof	20
	(i) Criminal proceedings	21
	(ii) Civil proceedings	21
5.	The court system	23
6.	Preparing a witness statement	27
	6.1 Introduction	27
	6.2 Content	28
	6.3 Form	30
	(i) Non-criminal proceedings	30
	(ii) Criminal proceedings	31
7.	Acting as an expert	35
	7.1 Introduction	36
	(i) Contrasting factual and opinion evidence	36
	(ii) The expert as witness of fact	37
	(iii) The expert as witness of expert facts	38
	(iv) The expert expressing opinion as to 'missing' facts	38
	(v) The expert giving 'pure' opinion evidence	38
	(vi) Expert evidence and 'the ultimate issue'	38
	(vii) Rules as to admissibility of expert evidence	40
	(viii) Who is 'an expert'?	41
	7.2 Civil procedure rules	41

7.3	Family procedure rules	41
7.4	Criminal procedure rules	42
7.5	Court of protection	42
7.6	Medical practitioners' tribunal service	42
7.7	Other forums	42
8.	Records and making notes	43
8.1	Introduction	44
8.2	Contents of records	44
8.3	The normal and routine, and 'standard practice'	47
8.4	Negatives or absence of findings	49
8.5	Explaining decisions	49
8.6	'After the event' records	50
9.	Communication	51
9.1	Patients	51
9.2	Patients' families	53
9.3	Professionals	54
9.4	The media	55
10.	Confidentiality	57
10.1	Patient's confidence	58
	(i) Disclosure with the patient's consent	58
	(ii) The disclosure is in a patient's best interest	59
	(iii) The disclosure is required by law	59
	(iv) The disclosure is in the public interest	60
	(v) Recording decisions	61
10.2	Data protection	61
10.3	Reflective practice	63
11.	Helping the police with their inquiries	67
11.1	Complaint about the clinician being questioned	68
11.2	Inquiries into someone other than the clinician	69
	(i) Road traffic	70
	(ii) Terrorism	70
	(iii) Gunshot and knife wounds	71
	(iv) Investigations in relation to other serious crimes	71
	(v) Police searching for a missing person	72
	(vi) Female genital mutilation	72
	(vii) Seizure of evidence	72
	(viii) Witness statements	73
12.	Patients in custody	75
12.1	Patients accompanied by the police	75
12.2	Patients from prison	78
13.	Consenting	81
13.1	General principles	82
13.2	Battery and trespass	83
13.3	Civil claims – The Montgomery test	83
13.4	Practicalities	85
	(i) By whom and when	85
	(ii) Forms and records	85
	(iii) The discussion	87

	(iv) The risk	87
	(v) Communication issues	88
	(vi) The reluctant patient	88
	(vii) Children and young people	89
14.	Mental capacity and mental disorder	91
	14.1 The statutory framework (mental capacity)	91
	14.2 The test in practice	94
	14.3 Best interests	96
	14.4 Dementia and long-term incapacity	96
	14.5 Detaining a person for emergency treatment	97
	(i) The outpatient attending A&E	97
	(ii) The inpatient	97
	(iii) Section 136 detention by police	97
	(iv) Inpatient receiving mental health treatment	98
15.	When things go wrong	101
	15.1 Introduction	102
	15.2 Duty of candour	103
	15.3 Public interest disclosure ('whistleblowing')	105
	(i) Legal framework	106
	(ii) Practicalities	107
	(iii) Record keeping	108
	15.4 Serious incident investigation	109
	15.5 Civil claim for damages in negligence	111
	(i) Bolam	111
	(ii) Montgomery	112
	(iii) The need for damages	113
	(iv) Assessing damages	113
	15.6 Criminal prosecution	115
	(i) Manslaughter by gross negligence	115
	(ii) Ill treatment or wilful neglect	116
	(iii) Assault	117
	(v) Health & safety	119
	15.7 Fitness to practise	119
	(i) Impaired fitness to practise	119
	(ii) Process	121
	(iii) Sanction	122
	15.8 Inquests	123
	(i) Involving the coroner	123
	(ii) Process	124
	(iii) Verdict, standard of proof and outcomes	125
	15.9 Disciplinary proceedings	126
	15.10 Care quality commission inspections	128
	15.11 Insurance, indemnity and support	131
	Index	135